ON THE COVER

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD'S K4s Pacific is one of the most famous and popular of all American steam locomotives. One reason is its distinctively handsome appearance. Another is its longevity. A third is the familiarity resulting from the large size of the fleet. But many modelers are unaware of its most important quality: The excellence of its design. Our feature, beginning on page 36, recalls the locomotive. Russ Reinberg shot the cover photo or Rick Runyon's 1:32 scale Aster live steam K4.
